

5th Human Cancer Immunology Course

Thursday October 10, 2019

Institut Jules Bordet

10:15-10:45 am

REGISTRATION AND WELCOME COFFEE

10:45-11:00 am

Welcome and Introduction

M. Piccart, MD PhD - A. Awada, MD PhD, Institut Jules Bordet – ULB, Brussels (Belgium)

Immunological Memory

11:00-11:20 am

Innate immune memory

Jorge Dominguez-Andrés, PhD, Radboud University Medical Center (RadboudUMC), Nijmegen, The Netherlands (NL)

11:20-11:40 am

Tissue resident memory T cells

Pleun Hombrink, PhD, Group Leader Sanquin Research, Amsterdam (NL)

11:40-12:00 am

The relationship between immunological memory and clinical outcome in cancer

Christian Ottensmeier, MD PhD, Professor of Experimental Cancer Medicine, University of Southampton University, UK

12:00-12:20 am

Panel discussion

12:20-1:20 pm

LUNCH

Non-malignant Elements of the Tumor Microenvironment

1:20-2:00 pm

New insights into the crosstalk between cells in the tumor microenvironment

Agnès Noel, PhD, GIGA-Cancer - Université de Liège, Belgium

2:00-2:20 pm

Intestinal microbiota and immune response interactions in human cancers

Maria Paula Roberti, PhD, INSERM, Institut Gustave Roussy, Paris, France

2:20-2:40 pm

Panel discussion

Accreditation

Chronic Inflammation and Cancer:

An interplay between oncologists and immune disease specialists

- 2:40-3:00 pm      The link between thyroid autoimmunity and breast cancer
Ilaria Muller, MD PhD, Cardiff University School of Medecine, UK
Fondazione IRCCS Cà Granda Ospedale Maggiore Policlinico, Milan - Italy
- 3:00-3:20 pm      Chronic inflammation in transplantation and links with cancer
Alain Lemoine, MD PhD, Transplant-Immunology, Erasme-IMI, Belgium
- 3:20-3:40 pm      Inflammation in chronic viral infections and links with cancer
Massimo Iavarone, MD PhD, Ospedale Maggiore Policlinico, University of Milan, Italy
- 3:40-4:10 pm      COFFEE BREAK
- 4:10-4:30 pm      Using viruses for immunotherapy in glioblastoma
Magnus Essand, PhD, Uppsala University - Sweden
- 4:30-5:10 pm      Impact of vaccination on the development of cervical abnormalities and cancer
Alejandra Castanon, MD, King's College London, UK
- 5:10-5:30 pm      Immunotherapy in HIV infected patients : what lessons can we learn for cancer treatment?
Maria Gonzalez Cao, MD PhD, Institut Oncologico Dr Rosell, Dexeus University Hospital, Barcelona - Spain
- 5:30-5:50 pm      Panel discussion

The use of corticosteroids during cancer treatment

9:45-10:00 am

Negative effects on immune responses

Karen Willard-Gallo, PhD, Institut Jules Bordet, Belgium

10:00-10:15 am

Positive attributes for controlling treatment toxicity

Sandrine Aspeslagh, MD PhD, UZ Brussel, Belgium

10:15-10:30 am

Discussion

10:30-10:50 pm

COFFEE BREAK

Predictive biomarkers and imaging of patients on immunotherapy

10:50-11:10 am

Predictive biomarkers for immunotherapy: How far have we come (or how much have we failed) in 2019?

Patrick Pauwels, MD PhD, Antwerp University Hospital, Belgium

11:10-11:30 am

Scoring TIL in breast cancer: Ready for prime time use!

Hugo M. Horlings, MD PhD, Netherlands Cancer Institute, Amsterdam (NL)

11:30-11:50 am

iRECIST 1.1***

Jan Bogaerts, Scientific Director - EORTC Headquarters, Belgium

11:50-12:10 am

In vivo imaging of immune responses by PET-CT: Murine models

Angela Krackhardt, MD, Technical University of Munich, Germany

12:10-12:30 am

In vivo imaging of immune responses by PET-CT: Cancer patients

Antonia Dimitrakopoulou-Strauss, MD PhD, German Cancer Research Center, Heidelberg, Germany
