H.U.B

A BRAND NEW WEBSITE FOR THE H.U.B !

The Brussels University Hospital is proud to announce the launch of its website! A central information platform for patients, partners and staff.

The H.U.B. or the coming together of three renowned institutions.

The Brussels University Hospital, created in October 2021, is the Academic Hospital of the ULB. It brings together the Erasmus Hospital, the Jules Bordet Institute and the Queen Fabiola Children's University Hospital. Its aim? To combine accessible health for all with excellence of care through its threefold mission of care, research and teaching. An information platform designed to communicate as effectively as possible with the actors who make up this extended community of more than 6,000 staff, at the heart of the Brussels Region, was of course a vital necessity. The website, which seeks to be as user-friendly and intuitive as possible, is intended for all: patients, partners, press, all who may want to join one of Brussels' biggest employers, future researchers, students, etc.

A central communication platform

On the Brussels University Hospital website you will find links that will take you to the resources of the various institutions, whether to make an appointment, find services or professionals, obtain contact details or consult practical access information, etc. A website that will evolve to include a growing number of functions. We will also be updating the website regularly with news from our three institutions: our successes, new treatments and diagnoses, scientific advances, acquisitions of major importance for care and research, etc. So visit our news section and keep up-to-date on the latest innovations in the health sector!

You will also find the H.U.B and its institutions on LinkedIn as well as on the social networks (LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Youtube). Through this communication platform the Brussels University Hospital is initiating its development in terms of communication and information. So stay connected!
